

Sal Cali
CEO/President/Founder

His distinguished career spans four decades and includes successful executive level positions in high-tech equipment manufacturing which has encompassed everything from starting a small division to investigating acquisition opportunities, and eventually becoming the VP/General Manager of Symbol Technologies. This position included, directing an international service operation, directing the product managers and overseeing the entire budget for his division which he grew from $0

